Using the Software.

To use the software, first go to this button and enter some details for the product that you want to create.

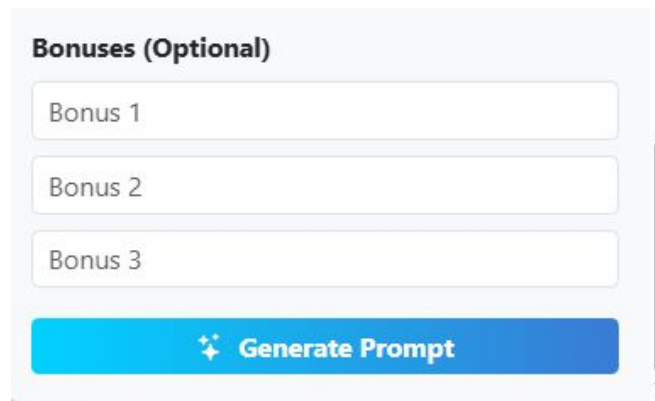

The screenshot shows the 'AI Page Builder' interface. It has two tabs: '1. Generate Prompt' (active) and '2. Paste JSON'. The form contains the following fields:

- Product Name: The Email Revenue Engine
- Price: 37
- Number of Modules: 6 (indicated by a blue dot)
- General Theme / Niche: The training must teach Email Marketing (Basics, Tracking, Traffic Strategies etc)

At the bottom, there is a green arrow pointing right, followed by three circular icons: a blue one with a starburst, a black one with a gear, and a green one with a download arrow.

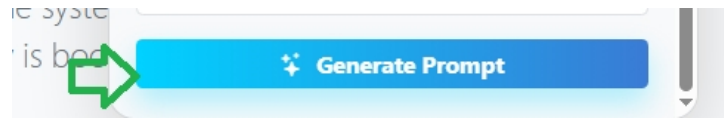

You need to scroll down to enter more details.

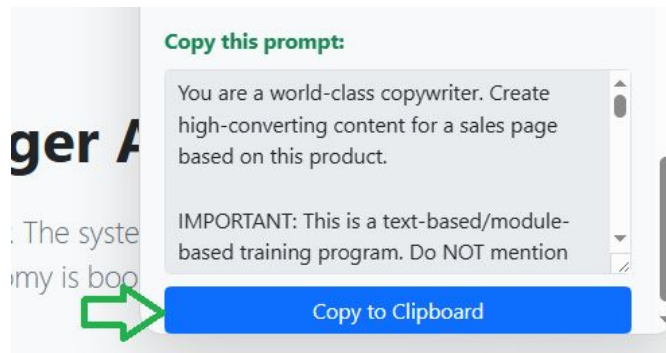

The screenshot shows the 'Bonuses (Optional)' section. It contains three text input fields labeled 'Bonus 1', 'Bonus 2', and 'Bonus 3'. Below these fields is a blue button with a starburst icon and the text 'Generate Prompt'.

You can enter names for 3 bonuses (if you don't enter them, the AI will generate them for you).

Then click “Generate Prompt”...

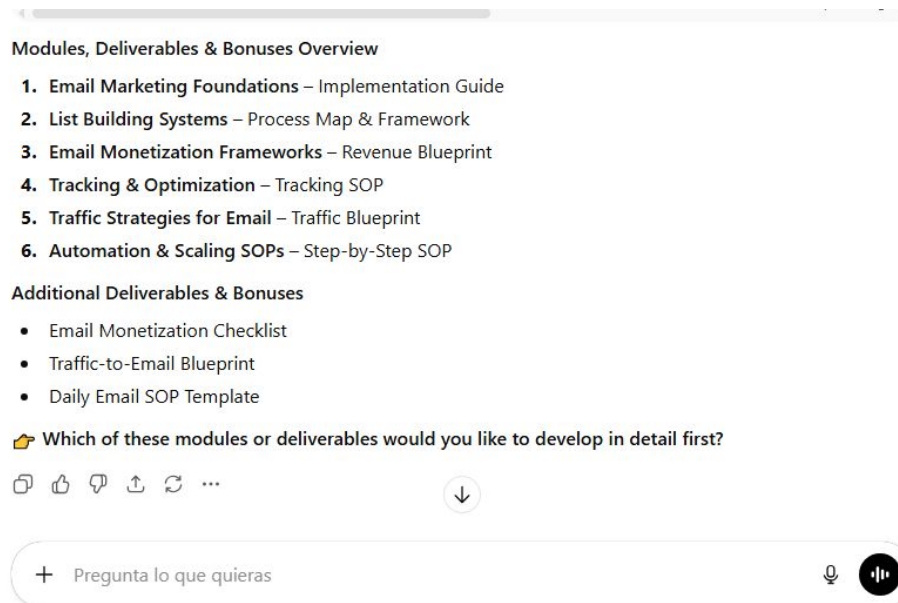

Then click “Copy to Clipboard”

... And paste the prompt inside ChatGPT (or any other AI tool).

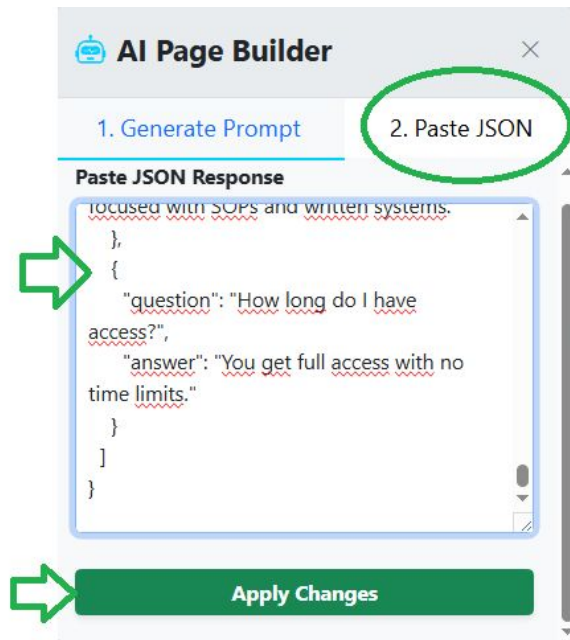

Once that ChatGPT has finished, it will guide you in the creation of the different modules (you can later take care of this):

Before that, you'll see a code (JSON Code). Click the "Copy" link to copy that code to your clipboard...

Everything within seconds.

Changing the Content of the Your Sales Page.

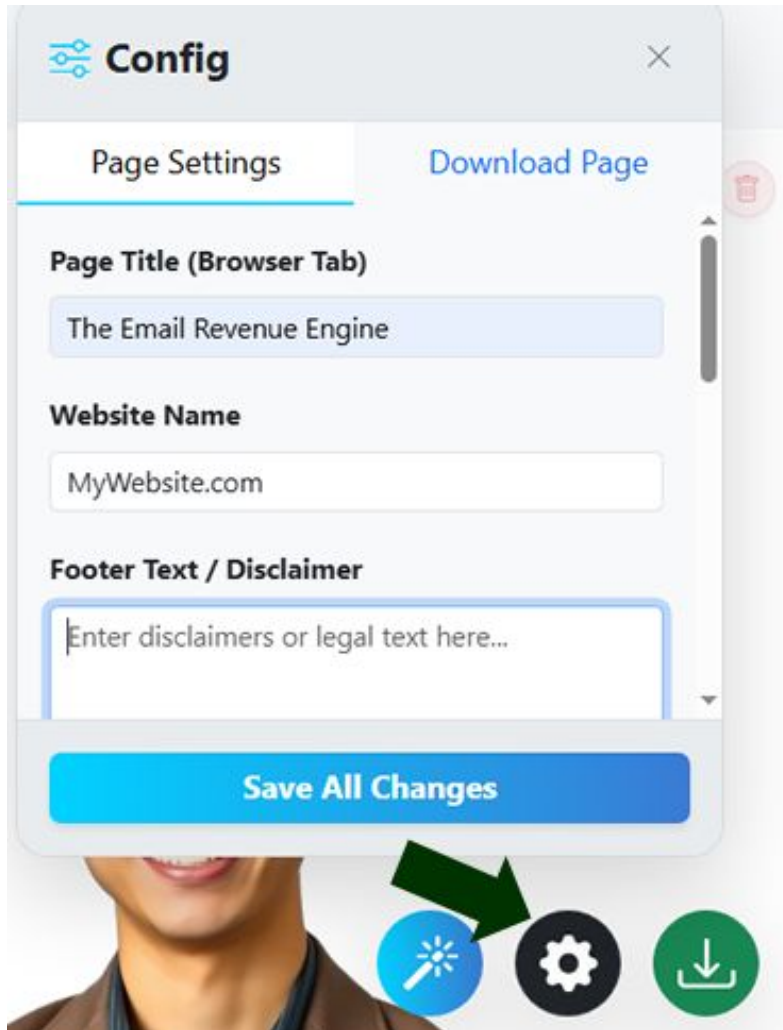

If you want to change a text, you can do it inline (just click and replace).

If you want to change an image just click it and you’ll be able to replace it.

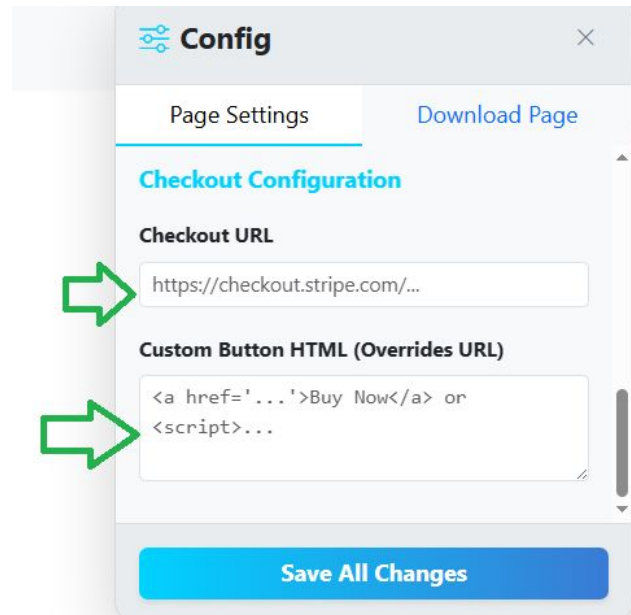

Other Settings.

If you click the “Settings” button, you’ll be able to tweak a couple of things:

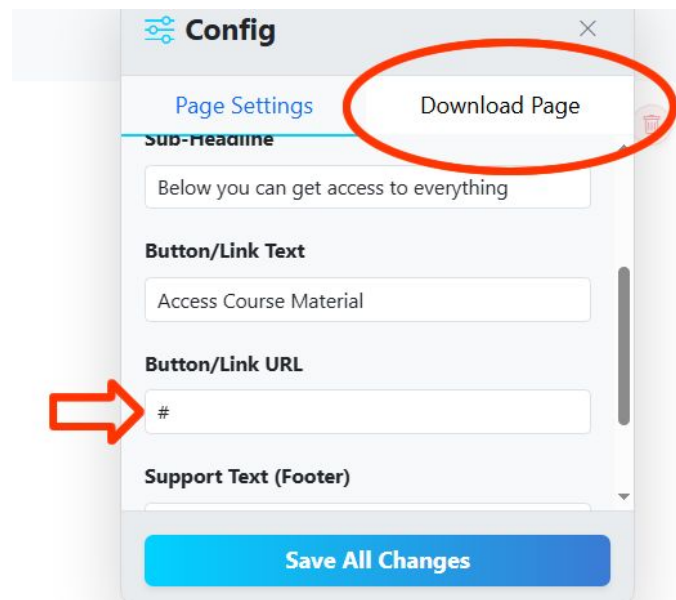

If you scroll down a little...

... You'll be also able to enter your payment button (a direct url or an embed payment button - PayPal, WarriorPlus, JVZoo etc).

Download Page: The software also allows you instantly generate a “Download Page” for you and you can adjust the settings of this page from the “Download Page” tab:

The “Button/Link Url” is the url where your product is hosted.

Finally, click the following button to download a .zip with a copy of your website.

The .zip files includes:

- Sales Page: index.html
- Download Page: download.html

Other related files.

After unzipping the .zip file:

- We recommend you to rename download.html (example: download-24vm.html)
- Upload everything to your website (can upload it to a subfolder like Yourwebsite.com/somefunnel).

That's all!
